HONOR CLUB CONFERENCE 2017 TO BE HELD AT CAMP MILLSTONE

Calling all NC 4-H Honor Club members! Looking for a chance to reconnect with 4-H? Then mark your calendars for Friday through Sunday, June 2-4, 2017 to attend Honor Club Conference 2017!

The annual Honor Club Conference will be held at Millstone 4-H Camp in Ellerbe, NC. The facilities are home to a pristine lake, homey cabins, and a unique recreational hall adorned with a historic old millstone, as well as a small 4-H museum affectionately known as "The House that Peanuts Built." This year, we will have the opportunity to utilize the new State Employees Credit Union 4-H Learning Center that was built in 2016 as a multi-purpose complex to be used for retreats, conferences, and educational programs. We are very excited for the opportunity to hold our conference in this beautiful new facility!

At Honor Club Conference, attendees will have the chance to connect with fellow Honor Club members from across the generations while voting on new members to induct and getting caught up on all the latest Honor Club news. Members will also be able to participate in a community service project, as well as have downtime to catch up with old friends and enjoy the fun recreational activities that Millstone has to offer. You won't want to miss it! Register today... See more details inside!

VOLUNTEER LEADER AWARDS

The annual Volunteer Leaders Conference is held in Raleigh each year and is an opportunity for 4-H volunteers to network, participate in workshops, enjoy speakers, and receive recognition for all of their dedication and hard work.

Honor Club has the privilege of presenting awards to several of our outstanding volunteers at the Conference each year. Sixteen individuals were recognized as award winners this February, and we inducted a new member into the Achievement Hall of 4-H Leadership. We love seeing people carry on the Honor Club motto of service by giving back to the 4-H program, and extend a sincere thank you to all they do to make NC 4-H strong!
